

FWAG South East, Thames Water and Catchment Sensitive Farming present

Healthier soils; at the root of healthier profits

A half-day workshop led by Joel Williams (BioLife Ag), looking at cover crops, organic matter, soil health and how they all fit together

Wednesday 22nd February 2017

Venue: Laurel Pond (cover crop plots tour) followed by Ramsbury Brewery (presentations)

by kind permission of Duncan Lee

10:00 - 10:00 Arrival at Laurel Pond cover crop demonstration plots (see map overleaf)

10:00 - 11:00 View cover crop demonstration plots: led by Tim Clarke (FWAG SE) and Paul Brown (Kings)

11:00 - 11:15 Travel back to Ramsbury Brewery (see map overleaf)

11:15 - 11:30 Coffee and biscuits

11:30 - 11:40 Cover Crop demonstration results: Tim Clarke (FWAG SE)

11:40 - 11:55 Why cover crops are important to us: Joanne Corp (Thames Water)

11:55 - 12:50 Cover crops and soil health: Joel Williams (BioLife Ag)

12:50 - 13:10 Questions and discussion

13:10 - 13:40 Lunch

All timings are approximate.

Ramsbury Brewery
Stock Close Farm
Aldbourne
Marlborough
Wiltshire
SN8 2NN

© Crown copyright and database rights 2016.
Ordnance Survey licence number 100052946.
Supplied by:
GeoFarm, Lydling Farm, Shackleford,
Godalming, Surrey. GU8 6AP

Map data

Cover crop demonstration plots

Park on grass at green arrow

© Crown copyright and database rights 2016.
Ordnance Survey licence number 100052946.
Supplied by:
GeoFarm, Lydling Farm, Shackleford,
Godalming, Surrey. GU8 6AP

Map data

Please ensure that you bring suitable boots & outdoor clothing for the visit to the cover crop demonstration plots.

BASIS and NRoSO points will be available

If you haven't already booked your place, please do so by contacting:

Helen Theobald on 07816 648112

or email Helen: helen.theobald@htfarmconsulting.co.uk

